

Family History 101 — Handout 5

Finding sources elsewhere:

FamilySearch may not always have the information you are looking for. As we talked about in the first week, the Church has given all members free access to the other leading online databases: Ancestry.com, FindMyPast.com, and MyHeritage.com. They each have their strengths and can aid you when you get stuck in your research.

Family History 'to do' for the week:

- Attach to one of your ancestors a source that originates on one of the partner sites.
- Watch one of your ancestors so that you will be notified when new developments happen.

“But how are they to become saviors on Mount Zion? By building their temples, erecting their baptismal fonts, and going forth and receiving all the ordinances ... in behalf of all their progenitors who are dead, and redeem them that they may come forth in the first resurrection and be exalted to thrones of glory with them.”

—Joseph Smith, History of the Church 6:184
